Nursery News

Please take a moment to go down to the nursery and meet our new Nursery Supervisor, Sherry Schwab. Sherry comes to us with many years of experience both personally and professionally in taking care of children. She will be here each Sunday and for special services (Maundy Thursday, Christmas Eve, etc.).

We require one additional person in the room each week. Please consider signing up to help Sherry. There are no special requirements and you will not have to do any prep, just sign up and show up!

The Session is encouraging our congregation to participate in an agape love opportunity. Seth Jackson (10 years-old) has experienced a medical setback, which has left him paralyzed with no use of his legs, after surgery.

Our hearts go out to Seth and his family. As most of us can remember, Seth blessed Hus Church with a grand smile and exuberant worship. As a part of the Body of Christ, we feel led to help in a tangible way. We are asking that after prayerful consideration, anyone wishing to help, may make a donation to the church that in turn will be directed to the Jackson family, in the name of Seth. Please include your special agape gift in your envelope offering.
